

MET HEAVY WEATHER AND BROKE IN TWO.

Story of the Bark Prince Arthur Wrecked on Washington Coast Friday Night Last.

NEAH BAY, Wash., Jan. 9.—The bark Prince Arthur from Christiana, Norway, which was wrecked two miles north of Paine rock Friday night, struck at 6 p. m. three miles from shore during thick weather. The ship broke in two and was a total wreck by 1 a. m. The crew stuck to the ship until washed away. Two survivors from the crew of 20 came in on the high tide after being in the water an hour. The survivors are Christopher Hanson, the second mate, and Kuld Larson, the sailmaker. The names of the drowned are:

- CAPTAIN HANS MASSON.
- FIRST MATE HARMON DOLL.
- LARS LRSEN, steward.
- GODFREY OLSEN, EAGLE ANDERSON, able seamen.
- GUSTAVE MOELENSEN, EMIL BARNSEN, FERDINAND FREDERICKSEN, POLDEN, FRANK EYKENDAL, PHILIP BALSAS, ordinary seamen.
- ANDERS, donkeyman.
- CHRISTIAN CHRIST PHERSON, CHARLES CHRISTONERSON, OSCAR MARLIN AND JORGEN, apprentice boys.

Carpenter, whose name is unknown. The two survivors state that they had no reckoning for three days and at 4 p. m., on the day of the wreck, gave 100 fathoms.

GRANDPAPA BAER.

Well Known Railroad and Coal Magnate Blessed With Heirs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—George F. Baer, president of the Reading railroad, has doubly realized the supreme desire of his life, says a Herald dispatch from Philadelphia. Within a few hours he became the grandfather of two bouncing boys. He has been quoted as saying: "I would rather have a grandson than any other honor."

or it is possible to have conferred upon me in this world."

While Mr. Baer was at the office his wife received a sudden call to Lancaster, Pa. Before she arrived there her daughter, Mrs. William N. Appel, had given birth to a son. Mrs. Baer had scarcely had time to telegraph the news to her husband when there came a message from Reading. The second message stated that another daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Connard, had given birth to a son.

FORGER ARRESTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The police have arrested Clarence Belp on a charge of forgery. Dispatches from Chief of Police Journee at New Orleans state that he is wanted there by the Luigi Dellorte Fruit Dispatch company and also by J. O'Brien of the Western Union Telegraph company. The amount stated in the complaint is $400.

FOR ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Scope of Arts and Science Announced—England Sends Representative.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 9.—The general scope of the International congress of arts and science has been announced by the world's fair management through Howard J. Rogers, director of congresses. Eminent specialists of the United States have been appointed to arrange the details of the plan.

This committee will meet for consultation January 10 and will report final recommendations to the advisory board on January 17.

George P. Parker, the London resident representative of the world's fair, has arrived from England. He will remain in the city several days to inspect the site of the fair and the progress of Great Britain's preparations for an exhibit.

TRAINMEN WILL PRESENT THEIR CLAIMS

Demands for Increase in Scale of Wages Will be Granted.

DENVER, Jan. 9.—The demands of the members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen employed on the Colorado & Southern railroad for an increase in wages will be presented to General Superintendent Charles Dyer at a meeting, which Mr. Dyer has promised for next Monday. Representatives of the order, who have been in conference in Denver during the last few days, have agreed upon the increase they will ask. It will amount to 20 percent of the present scale in some instances.

Requests will also be made of General Superintendent F. W. Eagan and General Manager Charles Schlacks of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad for a conference, at which a request for more pay will be made.

BICYCLE MEN AT WAR.

Not All Are Satisfied With Company's President.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A local news-

GRAIN-O THE PURE GRAIN COFFEE

If you use Grain-O in place of coffee you will enjoy it just as much for it tastes the same; yet, it is like a food to the system, distributing the full substance of the pure grain with every drop. TRY IT TO-DAY.

paper asserts that the struggle for control of the American Bicycle company and the opportunity to reorganize it, has assumed an unusual degree of bitterness, inasmuch as it has become a question whether President R. E. Coleman shall continue in charge of the company's affairs or be succeeded by Colonel A. A. Pope, whose friends assert that the company's affairs have been mismanaged, says a Times Boston dispatch.

The opposition to the Reed committee of which Mr. Coleman and Edwin Gould are members, is understood to hold between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 of the $3,000,000 bonds outstanding. It has not yet proposed a plan of reorganization.

WIVES WANTED.

Lonely Dakota Bachelors Will be Supplied With Better Halves.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 9.—A special from Kokomo, Ind., says:

Three months ago J. R. Walters, a former resident of this city, wrote from his home at Rugby, N. D., that there were 500 bachelors in that neighborhood wanting wives. The letter was published in a Kokomo paper. As a result nearly 100 girls wrote to Mr. Walters offering themselves as wives to the lonely bachelors. Individual correspondence followed and as a result 45 Howard county girls are getting ready for the journey to Rugby to wed the Dakota farmers.

THE HAGUE SUITS HIM.

Liberal Leader Pleased That No Individual Will Settle the Dispute.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Speaking at Stirling last evening, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, liberal leader in the house of commons, said he rejoiced that the Venezuelan dispute was not to be referred to any person or potentate, however prominent, but to The Hague tribunal. He said this step would establish the important precedent that in a dispute which had attracted the attention of the whole world to the two greatest powers, Great Britain and Germany, who showed readiness to use this machinery.

SNOW IN WEST VIRGINIA.

TERHA ALTA, W. Va., Jan. 9.—Sixteen inches of snow has fallen here and in this vicinity since Wednesday and it was still falling at midnight. High winds caused it to drift and many roads are impassable. The railroads have snow plows with two and three engines attached at work to keep their lines clear. A heavy snowfall is reported from all points in the Alleg-

FIGHT IN CLUBHOUSE.

Non-Members Create Rough House and Are Shot by Bartender.

FORT COLLINS, Col., Jan. 9.—In a fight at the Larimer county clubhouse, William Bailey, the bartender at the place, shot Chris Coy and Frank Page, and was himself injured by the discharge of his weapon in a scuffle for its possession with friends of Coy and Page. Coy is probably fatally wounded. Coy was put out of the resort because he was not a member, but returned later with several companions and, it is said, assaulted Bailey. Bailey shot several times before he could be dispersed.

QUARREL AND MURDER.

Colored Hotel Employee Kills Another in Dead of Night.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Fred Byrd, colored, a bell boy, at the Lexington hotel, was shot and killed last night by Walter Edwards, another colored employee. The shooting took place in the corridor on the fifth floor of the house and alarmed the guests. Edwards escaped. The shooting was the outcome of a quarrel earlier in the day.
